Dear Patient and Families,

We are excited to announce a significant change for Lowcountry Oncology and our patients. We have decided to return to private practice, and we look forward to providing the same compassionate care that you have become accustomed to receiving. We will be partnering with OneOncology to assist us in opening four new office locations. Each office will be conveniently located and will provide both clinic space and infusion services. We are excited about this transition and the implications that it will have for patient care. Our hope is that all patients are interested in staying with their team of providers and staff.

As always, you have the right to choose your provider. If you choose to continue your care with our new practice, you will need to transfer your medical records to our new practice. If you would like our staff to obtain your records on your behalf, please complete the attached Roper Authorization form and return it to the staff at your next visit. Alternatively, you may email a scan or picture of your authorization to the Lowcountry email address below.

On July 31, 2024, we will begin scheduling appointments on or after October 14, 2024 at our new locations. However, we are ready to answer any questions you may have by contacting the following email, phone or checking out our website.
